(In the space provided below, please explain in detail the reasons for the delay in filing a proper reply.)

The applicant Huang Ming has removed his receiving address to R.O.Box 166-13, Taipei, Taiwan R.O.C, the same can be seen in the USPTO as early as 01/07/2004 correspondence change recorded on app. no. 09/276,639. (as shown in encl. 1)

Because the receiving address was changing, so the "dated 10/20/2004" faxed allowance notice arrived on 11/04/2004, (as shown in encl. 2) the applicant soon paid issue fee and publication fee amount to US$985 to the USPTO.

Until 21 July 2005, the applicant still wait for his patent letter, and the case is not approved to publish on the USPTO website, so the applicant starts to call the examiner Walczak, David J, his supervisor, Sholl Linda J of the technology center 3700, it was known that the allowance notice had been issued in March 2004. the applicant pay the petition fee US$750 from the deposit account no. :503459. the holder Sally Chang. Sally Chang also has been assigned a customer number as 000054826 on 06/23/2005.

the related data about them are the same as Huang Ming's address change data. the applicant only want to show that his unintentional delayed payment on the issue fee. please revive the abandoned patent letter.

if not accepted by the USPTO, may the applicant re-apply the abandoned 10/697, 934 in C-I-P, and hopefully refund the issue fee and the publication fee?

Respectfully submitted

Huang Ming
